Special letters

- When studying the alphabet, you will notice a few letters that you may not have seen before. In addition to the letters we have in English, Spanish also has ll, ñ, and rr.
  - ll* is pronounced like a "y" in English, as in the word "yellow."
  - ñ* is pronounced like the combination "ny," as in the English word "canyon."
  - rr* is a "rolled" sound in Spanish. It is made by letting your tongue vibrate against the roof of your mouth, and sounds a bit like a cat purring or a child imitating the sound of a helicopter.

Look at the pictures below and fill in the blanks in the words or phrases with either the letter ll, ñ, or rr. Be sure to say each word aloud as you write it, practicing the sounds of the new letters.

1. Es la se _____ ora Guité _____ ez.

4. _____ ueve en la primavera.

2. Me _____ amo Gui _____ ermo.

5. Hace viento en el oto _____ o.

3. Es el libro de espa _____ ol.

The letters b and v

In Spanish, the letters b and v are both pronounced with a "b" sound, like in the English word "boy." This makes pronunciation simple, but can make spelling more challenging! Say the following words:

Buenos días. ¡Nos vemos! brazo veinte bolígrafo verano

The phrases below all contain either b or v. Pronounce both with a "b" sound, and write the correct letter in the blanks in each conversation.
