

Which One?

Each phrase describes either the United States holiday of Halloween or the Mexican holiday of Day of the Dead, as described in the video.

Put a "H" next to the descriptions of Halloween.
Put a "D" next to the descriptions of the Day of the Dead.
Put a "B" next to the descriptions that could be both.

1. _____ Trick - or - Treating
2. _____ Toy skeletons are seen.
3. _____ Flowers are used for decorating.
4. _____ Candles are used for decorating.
5. _____ Families believe that the spirits of dead family members return.
6. _____ People are not afraid of the dead.
7. _____ This holiday is celebrated with goblins, ghosts, and witches.
8. _____ Parties are held.
9. _____ Pumpkins can be seen.
10. _____ People decorate the cemeteries.
11. _____ People dress up in costumes.
12. _____ A special bread is made.

Matching

1. A yellow marigold, the flower most commonly used to decorate graves and altars for the celebration.
 2. A sweet treat made from sugar paste and decorated with icing.
 3. November 1 and 2.
 4. Children and adults wear these to hide who they are.
 5. A sauce made from chocolate, cinnamon and chiles.
 6. Skeleton figures made from paper maché.
 7. A candle.
 8. A fragrant incense burned to help the spirits find their way home.
 9. Colorful tissue paper cutouts used to decorate.
 10. A tombstone.
 11. A skull.
 12. A place in the home where mementos of deceased loved ones are displayed.
 13. The Aztec's believed adults came back as birds or _____.
 14. The night of November 1.
 15. A place where the deceased are laid to rest.
 16. Flowers.
 17. A skeleton
 18. A sweet bread baked in the shape of bones.
 19. A coffin.
 20. Children who have died become these.
- _____ el copal
_____ el angelito
_____ el cementerio
_____ la vela
_____ la calavera
_____ papel picado
_____ pán de muerto
_____ el ataúd
_____ la mariposa
_____ la tumba
_____ el mole
_____ las flores
_____ el cempasúchil
_____ la calavera de azúcar
_____ calaca en
papel maché
_____ el esqueleto _____ noche de duelo
_____ el altar de la ofrenda
_____ el día de los muertos
_____ la máscara