Say Something Notes
(¡DOUBLE-SIDED!)

Use this organizer to help you plan some questions and comments that you are going to say during our graded discussion in class on Thursday, March 16, 2017. I have provided some examples of what you can say in English, but you should come up with your own examples in Spanish in the blank spaces provided.

Tema/Topic: Los quehaceres

Ask a question about who (quién) does what chores. Ex. Who cleans the bathroom in your house?
Ask a question about where (dónde) certain chores are done. Ex. Where do you feed the dog?
Ask a question using a comparison. Ex. What do you like more, to cook or to wash the dishes?
Make a comment about how you feel about chores. Ex. I like doing chores a lot because I am not lazy!

Write a comparison about chores. Ex. For me, cooking is better than cleaning the bathroom.
Write about what the best/worst chore is in your opinion and why it is the best or the worst. Ex. The best chore is cooking because for me, it is easy and fun.
