

Nombre:

Fecha:

Clase:

6A Comparisons/Superlatives

Directions: Translate the sentences to Spanish using the comparative/superlative grammar structure we talked about in class. The problems with stars* on them need special words! Follow the models:

COMPARISONS:

MODELO: Juan is less smart than María. → Juan es menos inteligente que María.

1. Ava is taller than Ponce.

2. Ava is older than Ponce.*

3. Lolita is more athletic (deportista) than Juanito.

4. Jose is taller than Miguel.

5. Summer is better than winter. *

6. My friend is more daring than me.

7. Ana is younger than Isabel.*

8. Spanish is better than English.*

9. Monday is worse than Friday. *

SUPERLATIVES:

MODELO: María is the smartest student in(of) the class. → María es la estudiante más inteligente de la clase.

10. Harry Potter is the most interesting book.

11. Green Eggs and Ham is the funnest (most fun) book.

12. Harry Potter is the longest (most long) book.

13. Green Eggs and Ham is the shortest (most short) book.

14. Harry Potter is the best book from my bookshelf.

15. Green Eggs and Ham is the worst book from my bookshelf.
