You are helping to plan a quinceñera for your cousin. Answer the following questions about your cousin.

1. ¿Cómo se llama tu prima?

2. ¿Cuántos años tiene tu prima?

3. ¿Cómo es tu prima? (¿Cómo es su personalidad?)

4. ¿Qué le gusta hacer a tu prima en una fiesta de cumpleaños?

5. ¿Qué no le gusta hacer a tu prima en una fiesta de cumpleaños?

6. ¿Cuáles decoraciones tienen que usar ustedes para decorar la fiesta?

Now, turn the answers to these questions into a paragraph that you would give to the Spanish-speaking party planner that is going to help you plan your cousin's quince. Your paragraph should be 6-9 sentences! You must include possessive adjectives and at least one use of tener + que + infinitive!

Once you finished writing your paragraph, switch papers with someone in your group and edit their paragraph using a color different from what they used to write the paragraph. Then, fill out the peer-editing checklist below. If you cannot answer some of these questions because the person did not do that part, write IDK! on the line so the person knows what parts he/she forgot to include in their paragraph!

1. How many sentences did the person write? _____ Does this meet the length requirement? _____

2. What is the name of the person's cousin? _____

3. How old is the person's cousin? _____

4. What is the person's cousin's personality like? _____

5. What does the person's cousin like to do at a birthday party? _____

6. What does the person's cousin not like to do at a birthday party? _____

7. What decorations did the person say you all have to use to decorate the party?

8. Write the "tener + que + infinitive" sentence that the person included in their paragraph:

9. Please state one suggestion you have that could help this person improve their paragraph in Spanish.

10. Please state one compliment you would like to give to this person about their paragraph in Spanish. (If you say something like "Well written" or "Good job" you need to explain why you said that!)

11. Please make sure you have corrected any misspelled words in the person's paragraph and explain to them what they did wrong. You can use the space below to write them a note about what they did.

12. Please make sure you have correct any grammatical mistakes in the person's paragraph and explain to them what they did wrong. You can use the space below to write them a note about what they did.

13. Now, please review this peer-editing checklist with the person whose paper you were editing.
